USE The White Sewing Machine

Light, easy running, and practically noiseless. No more tired muscles or worn-out nerves when you use the "WHITE," and—

There's no reason why you shouldn't have it, as all that is required is $1.00 down, and $1.00 a week easily settles the remainder.

Come in and see this wonderful, scientific Sewing Machine—it will only take a few minutes to show you its many points of genuine superiority over any machine made.

Miss Zener from the White Sewing Machine factory is in attendance all this week.

Watch our window for samples of her work and see the workings of the new White Electric-Propelled Machine. It is the slickest thing out. This machine can be placed on any table or stand in the house, wherever it is the most convenient. The speed regulated by the pressure of the foot. See this new feature before purchasing.

Livery hands at the Papin stable on North Main street have a sable-hued mystery on their hands in the form of a valuable black horse which strayed into the stable enclosure Sunday. The animal's sombre coat is relieved only by a white face and repeated efforts to locate the owner of the steed have proved futile. No one seems to have lost so valuable a horse and even exhaustive inquiries in the countryside have failed to bring forth a response.

Willard Robbins, a member of the fire department, who received painful injuries in an automobile accident near East Montpelier Wednesday night, is gradually recovering from his experience, although yesterday it was reported that he was unable to move his limbs freely. His companion, George Beattie, has resumed his duties as a night messenger for the American Express Co. It develops that the accident did not proceed from collision with an underpass abutment, although the car was near the underpass when it turned turtle in the roadside. A passing fox had put the hunters on edge and the mishap occurred while they were trying to get a shot at Sir Reynard.

Bain for any soreness which may linger at Goddard seminary as the result of the team's football defeat at New London, N. H., a fortnight ago may be found on the sporting page of any Boston daily, for there is a strong likelihood that Colby academy will be selected to represent prep. schools of the East in an international match with the DePaul school of Chicago. Colby is the only dark spot in a season that has been unusually successful for Goddard thus far, but some of the sting of defeat is erased by Colby's remarkable showing against Everett high and other heavy eleven of New England. Goddard will go into the St. Peter's game on the hill-top to-morrow firmly resolved to add another victory to its string.

Through a dispensation from the aldermanic health committee, the garbage collecting department is not to be in season until to-morrow night, an arrangement which meets with the approval of many householders. Halloween night depredations had the effect of upsetting many packages left at the curb for the garbage man, with the result that some of the territory already covered by the department this week must be combed again. Tin cans continue to bulk large in the loads which the collector daily transports to the dump near Brook street, but the garbage men believe that the stream of tinware of this kind has slackened somewhat since folks were cautioned against using too much canned food when home canning should supply all wants in the line of preserved food.

Although Spaulding is not represented by a football team among the school activities of the year, arrangements are being made for some inter-class games and a games will be arranged between a team composed of members of the senior class and a team from members of the other three classes, which will be played about the middle of next week. Although the senior class appears to have the stronger team, as far as the number of last year's players is concerned, their opponents have a wealth of good material, which should, with a little practice, show up to a good advantage. Other games between the various classes will be arranged in a few days. The senior class held their first practice yesterday afternoon at the Lincoln campus. Hartley, Tomasi and Wilkins of last year's team being among those reporting.

Attaches at the headquarters of the Granite Manufacturers' and Quarriers' association are handling a new edition of "Memorial Masterpieces," the illustrated booklet which made its first appearance more than a year ago, when the nationwide advertising campaign in behalf of Barre granite was launched. The third edition is regarded as the best piece of illustrated advertising matter to be placed before the monument buying public since the campaign was launched. Requests for copies are pouring in and the office assistants find themselves taxed to acknowledge all the inquiries. The present edition number 10,000 copies, and with the two previous the aggregate of "Memorial Masterpieces" is 30,000. The new book contains 37 photographs, instead of 27 and four pages have been added.

The gloom which settled down over Barre yesterday and to-day as the result of new war imposts has deepened among patrons of the tontorialist with the announcement that a new schedule of prices has been adopted by the barber shop proprietors. Revision upward is the course pursued by the barbers, and while the immediate result of the increase in prices does not mean a wage raise for journey-men barbers, according to a statement made by an officer of the union to-day, the proprietors take the stand that the high cost of supplies and labor is responsible for the change in schedule. Shaves and the barber's funny story both go in at 15 cents as in the past, but haircuts of the ordinary kind jump from a quarter to 35 cents and clips of the pompadour persuasion will be 25 cents under the new order. Some of the less essential chores, such as shampooing, singeing and massages remain the same. The revised schedule goes into effect one week from Monday.

A Splendid Showing of Coat and Suit Models

Have you been thinking that you have been waiting too long to buy your coat or suit—that things are now pretty well looked over and the best picked out? Then you should see the splendid selection of coats and suits we are now showing in our height-of-season display. All are fresh, youthful designs—the best of the season's styles—a varied assortment as interesting as anything hitherto shown for fall or winter. You can count on the clever lines and smart styles lasting as long as the garment, as there has not been a season for a long while that caused so conservative lines as this season's styles in coats and suits.

Ladies' Tailored Suits Values

We are putting special prices on a lot of odd Suits that will interest any one who wants a good, warm, serviceable Suit for the late fall and winter wear. These are the season's best Suit styles and cloths, where the factories have made up all the materials, and we cannot duplicate on them. This makes a good saving for you and helps us to clean up our stock.

These Suits are made from the season's best materials and we feel sure we cannot offer you better Suit values than these for some time. In Suits from $25.00 to $30.00, you will find some values that you will realize later how hard it will be to duplicate such values.

These are exclusive Suit styles that we will not be able to duplicate in cloths or values.

We have just received a large line of Ladies' Silk Petticoats and a variety of the season's new designs and qualities.
